

Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation
The Legacy Society

The Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation's Legacy Society was established in 2003 by AAACF's Board of Trustees in honor of James and Clarice Foster, donors of AAACF's first named endowment fund. The Fosters' gift, in the form of a bequest, was made in 1963 - the year that AAACF was founded.

Membership in the AAACF Legacy Society is reserved for donors who arrange a bequest to AAACF, establish charitable remainder or charitable lead trusts, or make a gift of life insurance or retirement plan assets. In each case, the Legacy Society enables AAACF to recognize these donors now for their future gifts to the Community Foundation. These gifts ensure that AAACF will have the capacity to meet future community needs and emerging opportunities in our community. New member in 2008 are indicated in bold type.
