“No Regrets” by Nathan Lyndell Hall

This tattoo was my gift to myself for my eighteenth birthday. I didn't get it because it's "cool" to get tattoos these days; I got it because it is what I live my life by. I started to believe, a long time ago, that everything I do makes me a better person in the end. No matter what. I choose to learn from everything I do instead of dwell on how I could have done it differently. I don't see the point in worrying about something I can't change. I just plan on doing it right the next time.

What does this philosophy of life mean to you?
